

Keynote Speaker: Rehema Kavugha

Rehema Kavugha is serving at Lutheran Church Extension Fund as the Director of Synod Relations and has been serving at LCEF since May 2019.

Prior to her current role, she served from 2013-2019 as the Director of Student Development at Concordia University Nebraska. Prior to that she served as a Music Educator at Immanuel Lutheran School in Alexandria, VA (2011-2013) and Salem Lutheran School in New Orleans, LA (2007-2011).

A graduate of Concordia University Nebraska, Rehema received a Bachelor degree in K-12 music as well as a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Vocal Music. She continued her education and received her master's in business administration with an emphasis in Team Leadership and Management from Concordia University Nebraska in 2017.

Rehema calls Houston, TX home where she was born and raised. Her parents, Bob and Anna, as well as sister, brother-in-law and foster brother, still live in Houston, TX. Even more important, her niece and nephew also live in Houston, TX. Although Houston, TX is home, Rehema is a first generation born in the United States and her extended family all still live in Tanzania, East Africa.

She recently adopted a senior dog, Frannie Lou, from the rescue she volunteers at. In her free time, she enjoys volunteering at a dog shelter, playing the piano, bowling, trying new restaurants and loves wine and coffee.
