Mission Grant #9
$3,500

25th Biennium
2022-2024

Community Building Meals for Our Saviour Lutheran High School Students Our Saviour Lutheran Church, The Bronx, NY

We have several residential students who call Our Saviour Lutheran School their “home away from home,” and the friends, faculty and staff are their family while they spend ten months of the year away from biological families and homes.

This grant would allow our church to purchase food and devotional material to begin a ministry to reach out to residential students. Gathered around the dinner table, conversations about faith, the sharing of cultural food and prayer will encourage our students’ faith walk.

Our Saviour Lutheran Church, Bronx is a faithful community in Christ that receives and shares the gifts of God. We seek to live out that faith more richly in building a stronger connection between our church and our school. We have been a presence in the Morris Park section of The Bronx for 90+ years and we thank God for the gift of longevity and want to be good stewards of His gift to us.

Our Saviour Lutheran School, Bronx (OSL) serves 75-100 families annually as a ministry arm of Our Saviour Lutheran Church. Our school has been a diverse community presence serving predominantly minority students from the urban center since 1942. The students our church serves through the school ministry are welcomed into a caring, thoughtful, and engaging learning environment.

Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. (St. John 6:35 ESV)
